Re: General Motors Corporation, Bankruptcy Case No. 09-50026

Dear Ms. Gross:

I write in response to the June 23rd filing you made with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York regarding the above-referenced case. I note that in your filing you object to any language in the filings of the Debtors that would dissolve your claims in the bankruptcy or dissolve your claims in the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals.

If you have a lawsuit pending against the Debtors, you have a claim against the Debtors in their bankruptcy proceedings. A committee has been established to represent the interests of unsecured creditors. Counsel for the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors of General Motors Corporation can be contacted as follows:

Gordon Z. Novod, Thomas Moers Mayer
Kramer, Levin, Naftalis & Frankel, LLP
1177 Avenue of the Americas
New York, NY 10036
(212) 715-3275
(212) 715-8000 (fax)

The Committee should be able to answer questions you may have about filing a proof of claim in the bankruptcy proceedings.

Sincerely,
